RathaYatra is celebrated in Puri a coastal town in Odisha with much pomp and grandeur where three chariots are pulled by the devotees. The chariots carry three Lords to another temple also known as Moussema temple. Ratha Yatra is dedicated to Lord Jagannath, Lord Balaram and their sister Subhadra.

They are placed in individual chariots and are taken for a tour around the city before they reach their aunt's abode. People all over the world gather to pull the chariot of Lord Jagannath.

It is believed to bring prosperity and happiness in one's life. It takes place in the month of July. It is a festival of seven days. On the 7th day the three Gods are taken back to the temple. This day celebrated as UltaRath.

'Papad' and 'Jalabi' are two most commonly prepared dishes for this festival. This festival is also celebrated in several eastern parts of India. It occupies a unique place among the festivals of India.

Every year I wait for RathaYatra as it is my favourite festival. This year also I watched the live telecast of RathaYatra from Puri. It is a colourful festival. The idols of Lord Jagannath, Balaram and Subadra are decorated. This year I pulled the chariots of Lord Jagannath. After two years of Covid restriction we saw a huge crowd in Puri. In the evening we went to a fair. There we gorged on Jalabis and papad. At the fair, my friends and I enjoyed different rides and watched a magic show. Over all I enjoyed the day. I am looking forward to Ulta Rath for more excitement. My parents promised me to take me to Puri next year.

Every year during the time of Monsoon we celebrate the festival of Rath Yatra. Rath Yatra is the festival in honour of Lord Jagannath, his brother Balaram and his sister Subhadra. Idols of Lord Jagannath, Balaram and Subhadra are kept inside the 'Rath'. During the time of Rath Yatra fairs are organized where many activities, games are arranged. Delicacies like 'Jalebis' and 'papads', different kinds of toys for children are formed in. Pets like fish and birds are also seen in the fair. Children enjoy these games, delicacies. There are many Rath Yatras that are celebrated across India but the Rath of Puri in Odisha is the most famous in the world. Rath of Iskcon is also famous in West Bengal. During Rath Yatra many roads are closed as Rathis takes these roads. There are two days for Rath Yatra. According to Hindu Mythology it is believed that on the first day of Rath Yatra Lord Jagannath, Balaram and Subhadra visit their aunt's house. After one week Lord Jagannath with his sister and brother returns to his home. Rath Yatra is a festival of love, friendship and brotherhood. We enjoy this festival very much and we eagerly wait for Rath Yatra every year.
